

As a business in the metal and plastics machining industry, you face a unique set of risks that could threaten the financial health of your business. Safehold Special Risk understands the business you are in and can help you get coverage that is tailored to meet your specific needs.

Metalworkers' Program

As a managing general underwriter, our staff is well versed in the metal and plastics machining industry. Our dedicated underwriters work with an experienced and top-rated carrier to create risk management programs that meet the very specific needs of your business. Our program provides customized, cost-effective insurance coverage for metalworking companies of all types and sizes — and it's the only one endorsed by the National Tooling and Machining Association (NTMA). Whether you operate a small, local shop or a national production facility with hundreds of employees, we provide access to the coverage you need, at a price you can afford.

Your trusted risk advisor

With the Safehold Special Risk program, you will receive service from someone who knows your business, as each policy is underwritten by knowledgeable professionals who are specialists in the metalworking industry. In addition, the program offers flexible payment options and claims are administered quickly and efficiently.

Our extensive lines of metalworking coverage include:

- Property and casualty
- General liability
- Product liability
- Commercial auto
- Workers' compensation
- Umbrella
- Loss of business income
- Equipment breakdown
- Inland marine
- Crime
- Employment practices liability

Optional coverage and endorsements

Our program also offers industry-specific coverage not available through other underwriters, including:

- Aviation product liability (available subject to underwriter review)
- Loss control and risk management services, including four online defensive driver courses
- In addition, we can provide endorsements to enhance your standard policy coverage for property, auto liability, and equipment breakdown

When you work with Safehold, you will have the support of dedicated specialists who know your business. This program offers access to the customized coverages you need in a stable, specialty market.
