Missouri Works Training	https://ded.mo.gov/programs/business/missouri-works	As the state's number one incentive tool for expansion and retention, this program helps businesses access capital through withholdings or tax credits to embark on facility expansions and create jobs. This program can also help businesses purchase equipment to maintain its facility in Missouri. Businesses can earn up to $9,600 in business tax credits per eligible worker through the WOTC program. There is no limit to the number of qualifying new hires or total amount of credits distributed per year. WOTC cannot be claimed on previous employees, relatives, domestic employees, or on wages federally subsidized by on-the-job training programs. Each job seeker must be screened for target group membership on or before the day that you offer the job. The Missouri Work Opportunity Tax Credit (WOTC) Program is now offering an online application system for a more efficient means of submitting applications for certification. The application entry process includes entering employee and employer information from the completed and signed IRS Form 8850 and ETA Form 9061. You can submit your application online or print, complete, and mail the forms linked below.	Missouri Department of Economic Development	$116 million in tax credits		The Tax Credit Accountability Act Reporting Form must also be submitted to the Department of Revenue by June 30th each year the company receives tax credits and for the three years following the issuance of the tax credits.
