Apprenticeship Expansion Grant	https://labor.ny.gov/businessservices/funding.shtm	The New York State Department of Labor (NYSDOL) is making up to $3.7 million in funding available under the Apprenticeship Expansion Grant (AEG) Request for Applications (RFA). The purpose of this RFA is to expand Registered Apprenticeship (RA) training by increasing employment opportunities for approximately 800 new apprentices with a focus on underrepresented populations. These new apprentices will enter into trades in high-demand occupations, with a focus on the emerging fields of Advanced Manufacturing, Healthcare, and Information Technology, as well as other in-demand occupations. This funding will cover costs associated with the provision of training apprentices through RA, such as Related Instruction (RI), On-the-Job Training (OJT), books, and tools.	New York State Department of Labor (NYSDOL)	$3.7 million	26-Mar-21

Workforce Development Initiative	https://workforcedevelopment.ny.gov/	Governor Cuomo’s Workforce Development Initiative (WDI) is investing $175 million for job training projects. Awarded projects under the new WDI Consolidated Funding Application (CFA) will support strategic regional efforts that meet businesses’ short-term workforce needs, long-term industry needs, improve regional talent pipelines, enhance the flexibility and adaptability of local workforce entities, and expand workplace learning opportunities. Project plans and applications will be accepted on a continual basis as long as funds are available. To receive funding, projects go through a two-phase approval process: Phase One: Applicants submit a project plan through the CFA portal. Project plans are reviewed by the Regional Economic Development Councils (REDC) Workforce Development Committee to ensure that the project plan is feasible, stakeholders are aligned, funding is identified/available and the project conforms to the workforce plans for the region. Funding agencies and the Office of Workforce Development will review each application to ensure eligibility for one or more funding streams available under the WDI CFA. Phase Two: Applicants that advance to the second phase must submit a more	Office of Workforce Development	$175 million	FY2021 Workforce Development Initiative (WDI) program guidelines will be issued at a later date, subject to New York State's ongoing response to the COVID-19 public health emergency.

The tax credit is available through 2022. A certified employer will be entitled to tax credits against income or franchise tax for each qualified apprentice. Enhanced credits are offered to those who employ disadvantaged youth as apprentices and for those programs who engage the support of a mentor. Qualified apprentices must be employed full-time (a minimum of 35 hours per week) for at least six months during the tax year. To become certified for this tax credit, you must be a qualified employer. A qualified employer is a sponsor (or for group programs, approved participating signatory employers) of an active or probationary NYS RA program. If you are not already a NYS RA sponsor, please contact the New York State Department of Labor to establish a RA program. To become certified for this tax credit, you must be a qualified employer.
